THE ARCHBISHOP OF AKSUM AT THE EMBASSY OF IRAN

The Iranian Embassy in Addis Ababa marked the 45th anniversary of the Revolution on Monday, February 12, 2024, with a gathering attended by a distinguished array of guests. Among those present were senior government officials, members of the diplomatic corps, religious leaders, Iranian nationals, representatives from the media, and prominent figures from the business community.

During the event, His Excellency Archbishop Daniel, accompanied by his Chief Secretary Mr. George Constantine, engaged in fruitful discussions and forged agreements for future collaboration with Sheikh Abdulkarim Sheikh Bedredin, the President (Mufti) of the Ethiopian Islamic Affairs Supreme Council, and his Vice Presidents Sheikh Abdulaziz Abdulwale.

Subsequently, we convened with the Apostolic Nuncio of Ethiopia, Archbishop Antoine Camilleri, and partook in a cordial exchange of views.
