

10/07/2019

Romanian Church commences program in support of Roma communities

The Patriarchate of Bucharest has commenced a program and undertaken initiatives to support the integration of the Roma communities in the country.

According to media in the country, the Orthodox Church is busily establishing Sunday school in Roma communities and operating a primary health care program.