

27/02/2024

Metropolis of Larissa: Offices to close and mourning bells to toll on 28 February marking one year anniversary of Tempe tragedy

On Wednesday, 28 February 2024, the day that marks one year since the fatal accident in Tempe, which claimed the lives of 57 people, following the decision of His Eminence Metropolitan Ieronymos of Larissa and Tyrnavos, the Offices of the Holy Metropolis will remain closed, as a sign of honour towards the victims, our fallen fellow human beings, the dead of the unspeakable railway tragedy.

Also, on the same day and around 10:00, all the Parishes of the Metropolis will ring 57 mourning bells, as a sign of honour and respect for the memory of the victims of the accident.

vema.com.au