Memorial Service for late Bulgarian Patriarch Neophyte twenty days after his passing

A memorial service was held at the gravesite of the late Bulgarian Patriarch Neophyte, marking 20 days since his passing. The solemn prayer was led by His Eminence Metropolitan Gregory of Vratsa, Vice-Pesident of the Holy Synod.

Despite a week passing since his burial, people continue to pay their respects to Patriarch Neophyte by laying flowers at his grave.

High-ranking church officials and numerous laypeople gathered at the gravesite to honour the memory of Patriarch Neophyte, demonstrating the enduring impact of his life and leadership.
