

Western Crete Metropolitan: Why have Crosses been removed from ad posters featuring Greek Orthodox Churches?

The Metropolitan of Kissamos and Selinos, His Eminence Amphilochios, this week issued a statement drawing attention to the fact that various promotional posters appear at the local Chania airport showing the domes of characteristic Greek Orthodox Churches with the Cross having been photo-shopped in order to disappear from the image.

In a statement, His Eminence asked "... what exactly causes this removal of the Cross from a Church's dome? Who does it bother and who imposes this?"
