

Orthodoxy in south Madagascar

Orthodoxy continues to bloom in sub-Saharan Africa.

A feature on the Orthodoxia news agency today shows a Divine Liturgy presided by the Bishop of Toliara and South Madagascar, His Grace Prodomos on Sunday, in commemoration of the Holy Fathers of the 4th Ecumenical Council. Among the worshipers were newly baptized young boys, who served as acolytes.

A video is posted today also showing members of an African Youth group on a 40-day pilgrimage in Georgia.
