Orthodox faithful flock to meet, congratulate new Archbishop of Australia

Scores of Greek-Australians continue to arrive at the Archdiocese office of new Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, on daily basis, in order to meet with the primate of the Greek Orthodox Church on the island continent.

Greek Orthodox faithful often travel hundreds of kilometers to meet and congratulate His Eminence Makarios, as well as to seek his blessing and pastoral guidance. Makarios assumed the very significant overseas Greek Orthodox ecclesiastical throne at a crucial period
