His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America to Headline National YAL Conference as Keynote Speaker

SAN DIEGO, CA – The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America and the National Young Adult League (YAL) Conference are blessed to announce that His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America will be the esteemed Keynote Speaker at the upcoming National YAL Conference. This year's theme, "Unify: In Christ We Are One," underscores the importance of unity and community within the faith.

A standout feature of this impactful event will be an interactive Q&A session immediately following the keynote address, where His Eminence will engage directly with young adults in an unique and insightful dialogue. His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros is a dedicated supporter of the emerging, robust young adult ministry initiatives across the Archdiocese and has expressed his joy in the resurgence of the National YAL Conference.

The National YAL Conference eagerly anticipates the wisdom and inspiration that His Eminence will bring to this significant gathering. His presence and guidance will undoubtedly enhance the impact of this conference for all attendees, offering them a memorable and enriching opportunity to deepen their faith and sense of community.
