Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate: “Protecting the Future of Faith”

The Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate marked their distinction as “Protecting the Future of Faith” with a reception on July 3, 2024 during the 47th Clergy-Laity Congress. Guests heard from National Commander Archon Anthony J. Limberakis, M.D. and Regional Commanders Archons Gerry Ranglas and the Hon. Steven G. Counelis.

After enjoying some time socialising, His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America and Dr. Limberakis offered commemorative gifts to Patriarchal Representatives, Their Eminences Archbishop Nikitas of Thyateira and Great Britain and Metropolitan Cleopas of Sweden and All Scandinavia, as well as Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco.

The Archons are an extraordinary fraternity of faithful children of the Mother Church whose devotion and dedication to the Great Church of Christ, and particularly to Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, is an example for all the world to
