The feast of all the Saints of Palestine at the Patriarchate

Following the established order of the Patriarchate of Jerusalem, on Sunday, the day after All Saints' Sunday, the feast of all the Saints practicing in Palestine is celebrated in the Patriarchate, according to the sequence, which the hymn writer of the Great Church of Christ Gerasimos Microgiannanites wrote.

In honour of these saints, on Sunday, June 24th / July 7th, 2024, a Hierarchical Divine Liturgy was celebrated in the Catholicon of the Church of the Resurrection, presided over by His Eminence Archbishop Theodosios, with concelebrants the Typicon Keeper of the Patriarchal and Monastic Church of Saints Constantine and Helen Archimandrite Alexios, the priest of the Church of Fr Anastasios and Hierodeacon Dositheos. The chanting was delivered by the Secretary of the Holy Synod Hierodeacon Symeon as the service was attended by local believers and pilgrims.

After the Divine Liturgy, the Episcopal Entourage went up to the Patriarchate.
