Archbishop Elpidophoros of America Attends Reception and Dinner for Greek-Americans in Milwaukee

Following his inspiring prayer at the opening session of the Republican National Convention, His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America attended a reception and dinner for Greek-Americans in Milwaukee.

The reception, hosted by John and Margo Catsimatidis, saw Reince Priebus, Chairman of the Milwaukee RNC Welcome Committee, extend a warm welcome to His Eminence and distinguished guests. The evening continued with a dinner hosted by Robert and Violetta Buhler. Notable guests in attendance also include former Secretary of State Mike Pompeo and his wife Susan, Congress members Gus Bilirakis and Nicole Malliotakis, the Ambassador of the Hellenic Republic to the United States Ekaterini Nassika, Ambassador of the Republic of Cyprus to the United States Evangelos Savva, and other prominent leaders from the Greek-American community.
