30/07/2024

Celebrating St Panteleimon, the 5th Anniversary of Arch. Nikitas' Enthronement, and the Ordination of Dn Dimitrios Mamouchas

On Thursday, 27th July 2024, commemorating the Great Healer and Martyr St Panteleimon and celebrating the Five-Year Anniversary of His Eminence Archbishop Nikitas' Enthronement as the Archpastor of this Biblical and historical eparchy of the Ecumenical Throne, His Eminence Nikitas presided over Matins and celebrated the Divine Liturgy at the Church of St Panteleimon in Harrow, North West London. Additionally, the Rev. Deacon Dimitrios Mamouchas was ordained to the Holy Priesthood.

His Grace Bishop Raphael of Ilion and His Grace Bishop Iakovos of Claudioupolis, followed by the V. Rev. Nephon Tsimalis, Protocyngellus, the V. Rev. Antonios Kakalis, Archimandrite of the Ecumenical Throne, the V. Rev. Archimandrite Theophanis Petrou, the Rev. Protopresbyter Joseph Paliouras, Rev. Protopresbyter Constantinos Papageorgiou, Priest in Charge, Rev. Oeconomos Ieorotheos

Georghiou and the Rev. Presbyter Gerald Hopkins, concelebrated the Liturgy on this memorable and joyous occasion for the Archdiocese. The Rev. Archdeacon Dr George Tsourous and Rev. Deacons Gregorios Florides and Charalambos Clarke also served.

Archons, lay leaders, and faithful Christians filled the church in Harrow. His Grace Bishop Raphael of Ilion, on behalf of the clergy of the Archdiocese, addressed the Archbishop, expressing everyone’s joy and gratitude for a fruitful and successful archpastoral service over the last five years and reaffirming their support for the Archbishop’s vision.

Following the festive eucharistic assembly, the community generously provided a meal. During the meal, His Excellency Christos Goulas, Consul of the Hellenic Republic in the UK, and His Excellency Spyros Miltiades, Deputy High Commissioner of the Republic of Cyprus, both addressed the Archbishop and conveyed greetings on this auspicious occasion.

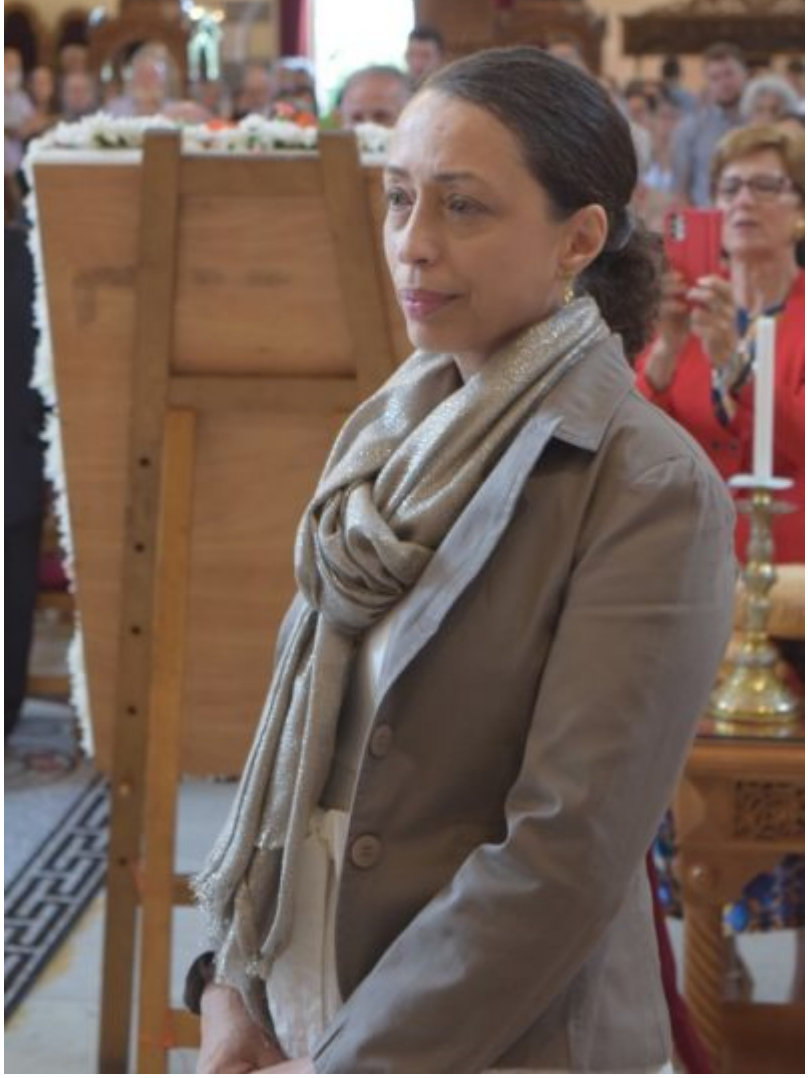

thyateira.org.uk