Patriarchal Exarch of Southeast Asia visited the newly established parish in Semarang City

On the 30th of July 2024, Metropolitan Sergius, Patriarchal Exarch of Southeast Asia, Metropolitan of Singapore and Southeast Asia, visited the newly formed community in honour of the Holy First-Faithful Apostles Peter and Paul in Semarang (Central Java Province, Indonesia), where he celebrated a prayer service.

The congregation warmly welcomed the Archpastor. After the service, Metropolitan Sergius continued communicating with the faithful, during which further plans for the organisation of a full parish life were outlined.

Metropolitan Sergius also donated an icon of the Saviour to the community, reports the Exarchate’s Telegram channel.
