

Ilia II: All mankind is tired, but grace of our Lord surpasses that fatigue

Do not be afraid of the fatigue, the Lord sends the trial to mankind, but also gives joy and strength, Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia Ilia II said in his Sunday sermon.

Patriarch recalled the history of the creation of chant “I’m tired, come to me, Lord!”.

“All of humanity is tired, but the grace of our Lord surpasses that fatigue. God is with us. Be blessed and happy, do not be afraid of fatigue, the Lord sends the trial to mankind, but also gives the humans joy and strength. God bless you, Georgia and the whole world. God is with us”, – Patriarch said.

– 1tv.ge