Archbishop Nikitas Visits H.S. PROMETHEUS

On 4th August 2024, His Eminence Archbishop Nikitas of Thyateira and Great Britain had the honour of visiting H.S. PROMETHEUS a General Support Ship of the Greek Navy on its summer training cruise supporting Frigate H.S. KANARIS. Also present were His Excellency Yannis Tsaousis, Ambassador of the Hellenic Republic in the UK, Commander representatives of the Royal Navy, Chris Hannides, Chairman of the Greek Orthodox Community of St Nicholas Southampton, along with parishioners and other community members. The Archbishop received the ships' crests and presented icons of Christ to the Captains. The visit concluded with a reception featuring traditional Greek dances performed by the Greek Cultural Club of Bristol and sailors from the ships.
