Belgrade Archdiocese again organizes Greek holiday program for children of large-member families

The Archdiocese of Belgrade and Karlovci is organizing its fifth annual vacation program to Greece, for children of large-member families, an initiative that has the blessing of the Patriarch of Serbia, His Holiness Irinej.

According to an announcement by the Archdiocese, the children's holiday comes after a relevant invitation by the Metropolitan of Kitrous, Katerini and Platamonas, His Eminence Georgios.

Some 40 children departed last Sunday for Greece, where they will vacation for 10 days. During their stay in the country, the group will visit Churches, monasteries, archaeological sites, Mt. Olympus, as well as numerous beaches in the north-central Greek mainland.
