

02/08/2019

Patriarch Kirill prays for flood-ravaged residents in Russian Far East

The Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, His Holiness Kirill, this week prayed for those affected by the massive flooding in the Russian Far East region where the Amur River flows.

Hundreds of residences were buried in floodwaters and mud, with more than 2,500 people evacuated from their homes.

