12/09/2024

Hellenic College Holy Cross honours victims and heroes of 9/11

In a heartfelt social media post, Hellenic College Holy Cross paid tribute to the victims and heroes of September 11, 2001, on the anniversary of the tragic events that shook the nation and the world.

The message from the institution reads: “Today, we remember and honor the victims of September 11th, 2001, and the countless heroes who risked their lives to save others on a day that forever changed our nation and the world. We stand in prayer and solidarity with all those who lost loved ones on this tragic day and continue to seek peace, hope, and healing for all. As a community, we pray that their memory be eternal.”

This solemn post highlights the enduring impact of the 9/11 attacks and underscores the College’s commitment to honouring the lives lost while also promoting a message of peace, hope, and healing. As a community grounded in faith, Hellenic College Holy Cross calls for prayers and remembrance, ensuring that the memories of the victims and the bravery of the heroes remain eternal.

vema.com.au