Bishop Kyriakos of Melbourne liturgised at the Church of the Three Hierarchs in Clayton

On Sunday, 22 September 2024, His Grace Bishop Kyriakos of Melbourne officiated at the Matins Service and presided over the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy, and the service of the blessing of the five loaves (Artoklasia), at the Church of the Three Hierarchs in the suburb of Clayton in Melbourne, and was joined by the Parish Priest, Father Haralambos Pyrelis.

At the end of the Divine Liturgy, His Grace spoke to the congregation, presenting and analysing the Gospel passage of the day, in both Greek and English. His Grace also conveyed to all the blessings and wishes of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia.
