

Enthronement of new Metropolitan of Kitiou

The enthronement of the new Metropolitan of Kitiou, His Eminence Nektarios, was held on Tuesday at the Metropolitan Cathedral of the Savior in the Cypriot coastal city of Larnaca, officiated by the Metropolitan of Paphos, His Eminence Georgios.

The new Metropolitan of Kitiou, in his first statements after the enthronement, referred to the awe he feels when considering the very significant Church of Cyprus hierarchs that previously held the same ecclesiastical throne.

He added, "... we will reinforce every effort by the (island republic's) leadership in our land for the finding of a just solution to the problem of our country's occupation by the Turkish invader".
