

09/08/2019

Orthodox missionary work in western Kenya

The Orthodox Diocese of Kisumu in western Kenya continues its very prolific missionary work, despite the difficult conditions it faces. Among others, a youth seminar attended by dozens of young people was held for three days this week in the wider Nyanza province, Kenya's Great Lakes region.

Participants also had the opportunity to meet and talk with members of a Greek Orthodox mission from the United States.

