

The Ecumenical Patriarch called Patriarch John X: “We pray for you and stand by you and your people in these circumstances of war in Lebanon and violence in the whole region. “

His Beatitude John X, Patriarch of Antioch and All the East of the Greek Orthodox, received a phone call from HB Patriarch Bartholomew I of Constantinople, New Rome and the Ecumenical Patriarch. During the call, the Ecumenical Patriarch stressed the support of the Church of Constantinople, both as clergymen and lay people, especially for the affected areas because of the war in Lebanon and Gaza. Both parties asserted the importance of efforts to stop the war and restore peace. For his part, Patriarch John thanked Patriarch Bartholomew for his fraternal sympathy and support to the Children of the Church of Antioch in these hard times. His Beatitude highlighted the need of concerted international and regional efforts and pressures to stop the war and establish peace.

سكذوثرألا مورلل قرشملا رئاسو ةيكاطنأ ةيكريطب Antioch Patriarchate