The Greek Deputy Minister of Digital Governance visits the Ecumenical Patriarchate

On Wednesday, 30 October 2024, the Greek Deputy Minister of Digital Governance, Mr Konstantinos Kyranakis, paid a visit to the headquarters of the Ecumenical Patriarchate, where he was warmly welcomed by His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew.

It is noted that the Ecumenical Patriarch has a longstanding acquaintance with the Kyranakis family.

Also, on Wednesday at the Phanar, a meeting took place between the new Consul General of France in the Constantinople, Mrs. Nadia Fanton with His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, together with officials of the Consulate General.
