

Archbishop Nikitas attends Remembrance Day at the Cenotaph

On Sunday, 10th November 2024, His Eminence Archbishop Nikitas of Thyateira and Great Britain joined His Majesty the King, members of the Royal Family, senior Government officials, representatives of various faith communities, military personnel, and dignitaries at the Cenotaph in London for the National Service of Remembrance. This event honours the individuals who have sacrificed their lives in service to the nation.

Reflecting on the occasion, His Eminence prayed for peace and unity among all people. Standing alongside leaders from diverse backgrounds, he represented the Archdiocese and our commitment to remembering and honouring those who have fallen.
