Annual procession of the faithful to Monastery of Hodoș-Bodrog, in W. Romania

Hundreds of Orthodox faithful on Wednesday will again join a procession headed towards the Monastery of Hodoș-Bodrog, in western Romania, the day of the Forefeast of the Dormition of the Theotokos.

The procession was first commenced in 1925, with the route called the “Path of the Cross”.

The historic monastery, built in the late Middle Ages, is located some 15 kilometers from the city of Arad.
