Metropolis Council Meets, Elects Officers at First Meeting of New Term for the Metropolis of San Francisco

The Metropolis Council for the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of San Francisco met for the first meeting of the 2024 – 2026 term on Wednesday, November 13 at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Church in Belmont, CA. The day began with Divine Liturgy for the Feast of Saint John Chrysostom, followed by the Installation Service for the Metropolis Council.

His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos, as President of the Council, then convened a meeting of all the members and the following officers were elected: Isidoros Garifalakis – Vice President; Honorable (Ret.) Connie Contes – Secretary; and Michael Syrengelas – Treasurer.

In his remarks to the Metropolis Council, Metropolitan Gerasimos challenged the members by stating, “We need to become agents of change. We need to build upon the foundation – that is the Gospel and our faith – but look through a new lens at the opportunities ahead of us as the Orthodox Church. We have been given the possibility of changing the message – not the dogma – but the way we deliver the messages of peace, love and salvation to the world. Let us accept this challenge, first within ourselves, and then take this message to the ends of the world.”

Eight clergy and eight lay members of the Metropolis Council were elected at the March 2024 Clergy-Laity Assembly, and an additional eight members were appointed by His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos.
