

Church initiative ‘Procession of Light’ through Brasov, Romania on Friday

In Romania, hundreds of Orthodox teens and youth are expected to participate in Friday’s “Procession of Light” through the streets of Brasov, part of events organized by the Patriarchate of Bucharest as part of the initiative “Romanian Village” – which aims to promote traditional and Christian values to young people.