19/08/2019

Archbishop Makarios gets set to make inaugural visit to Adelaide

Following a jam-packed two week visit to Melbourne, there is little rest for His Eminence Archbishop Makarios before he ventures off yet again, this time to Adelaide to meet the Greek Orthodox community.

Arriving on Saturday 31 August, it will be the Archbishop's first pastoral visit to South Australia since his enthronement in June.

A five day schedule has been put together for the Archbishop, during which he will attend a number of community and official events where he will meet with various members of the community, as well as key stakeholders.

The visit to Adelaide is part of a broader pastoral tour to major Australian cities to welcome the new Archbishop to Australia.

See Archbishop Makarios' schedule for Adelaide below.

Saturday 31 August:
1.40 pm His Eminence Archbishop Makarios arrives Adelaide Airport – Domestic 3.00 pm Doxology Service St Nectarios Monastery
4.00 pm Visit St Basil's Croydon Park
7.00 pm 35th Anniversary Dinner Dance, St George College (SOLD OUT)

Sunday 1 September: Father's Day
8.00 am Liturgy St George Church
4.00 pm Visit St Basil's St Peters

Monday 2 September
9.00 am Visit St Dimitrios Church
10.15 am Visit St Raphael, Nicholas and Irene Church
11.30 pm Visit Prophet Elias Church
2.30 pm Visit St Anthony Church
5.30 pm Visit Church of the Nativity of Christ, Port Adelaide

Tuesday 3 September
9.30 am Visit St Spyridon Church
10.10 am Visit St Spyridon College
11.30 am Visit Greek Welfare Centre of SA – St Philothei

Wednesday 4 September
9.00 am Student Assembly St George College
11.00 am Visit St Panteleimon
4.45 pm Farewell. Arrive at airport for departure at 6.00 pm

In addition, Archbishop Makarios of Australia is scheduled to visit Brisbane.

- Source: neoskosmos.com