The Orthodox Youth of Tirana prayed for the health of Archbishop Anastasios of Albania

A holy supplication to the Most Holy Theotokos for the health of His Beatitude Archbishop Anastasios of Tirana, Durrës and All Albania, who remains hospitalised at the “Evangelismos” Hospital in Athens, was held on Tuesday, 7 January 2025, in the Chapel of the Nativity of Christ at the Cathedral of the Resurrection in Tirana, Albania.

The prayer was led by Father Gregory Pelushi, with the participation of young members of the Orthodox Youth of the Archdiocese of Tirana. They sang and prayed fervently for Archbishop Anastasios to overcome his health problems and return to them soon.
