Announcement on the work of the Holy and Sacred Synod

The Holy and Sacred Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate convened, under the presidency of His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, in its regular session on Thursday, 9 January 2025, to examine the items listed on the agenda.

As stated in the relevant press release of the Chief Secretariat of the Holy and Sacred Synod: “At the beginning of the session, festive addresses and responses for the beginning of the new year were exchanged between His All-Holiness and His Eminence Archbishop Sotirios of Canada, on behalf of the Holy and Sacred Synod.

During this, the Services of the Small and Great Message of His Eminence Metropolitan Sebastianos of Atlanta, elected during the Synodal work of the past month of December 2024 were conducted, who then received the congratulations of His All-Holiness, the holy Hierarchs and the members of the Patriarchal Court, who wished him a blessed pastorate.
