20/02/2025

Patriarch John X holds a deliberation with the bishops of the archdioceses in Syria

In the context of following up on the current developments in the region, a deliberation was held by His Beatitude John X, the Greek Orthodox Patriarch of Antioch and All the East and Reverend Metropolitans:
Basilios Mansour (Akkar), Nicola Baalbaki (Hama), Athanasios Fahed (Latakia), Ephrem Maalouli (Aleppo), Gregorios Khoury (Homs) and Antonios Saad (Houran) at the Patriarchal Monastery Saint George Al-Humaira – Wadi al-Nasara. His Beatitude and the bishops discussed the general situation in Syria, the situation in the archdioceses and the challenges that face thebelievers. His Beatitude also informed the attendees about the results of the various meetings he held with international envoys and others. His Beatitude and the Metropolitans stressed that the Antiochian Church is ready to go hand in hand with anyone working to preserve the values of citizenship and coexistence among all components and groups of the Syrian people.

Antioch Patriarchate بطريركية أنطاكية وسائر المشرق للروم الأرثوذكس