

Patriarch John X Returns from Doha

Patriarch John X Returns from Doha:

“We are deploying our best efforts for the benefit of our country, our people, and our Church in the Middle East and everywhere.”

The Greek Orthodox Patriarch of Antioch and All the East, John X, arrived at Beirut Airport, returning from an official and ecclesiastical visit to Qatar. He was received by Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Tarek Mitri, representing the President of the Republic, General Joseph Aoun, and Dr. Elias Warrak, President of the University of Balamand. Accompanying his Beatitude on this visit was a delegation of clergymen that included HE Metropolitan Athanasios Fahd of Latakia and its Dependencies.
