

Phanar: Patriarchal Trisagion for the late former Metropolitan Andreas of Konitsa

Early in the afternoon on the fifth Sunday of Lent, 6 April 2025, His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, made his way down to the venerable Patriarchal Church and conducted a Trisagion for the repose of the soul of the late former Metropolitan Andreas of Dryinoupolis, Pogoniani and Konitsa, surrounded by clergy of the Patriarchal Court and various faithful.

At the funeral service of the late Hierarch, His All-Holiness will be represented by His Eminence Metropolitan Theologos of Serres and Nigrita.

Photographs: Nikos Papachristou

vema.com.au