Saint Demetrius Church in Akron - a place of spiritual and building renewal

With the blessing of His Grace Bishop Irinej and the efforts of our talented parish priest, Fr. Dragan Goronjić, the parish of Akron, St. Demetrius Serbian Orthodox Church, is a place of constant spiritual and building renewal.

Without a break, there is a detailed renewal of the church, church hall, Sunday school and the haven of the church.

Also, it is important to mention that a monument is being erected to all Serbian victims whose names are not known and to those for whom no one can pray.

In these few photos attached, the pictures say more than words.

We pray to the Lord that Father Dragan and his parishioners continue to be empowered by the Lord to do everything they do in the Glory of God and the
