

Patriarch of Romania attends opening of 2019 Enescu Festival

The Berlin Philharmonic, one of the world's top orchestras, opened the 2019 edition of the George Enescu Festival at Bucharest's Palace Hall in the presence of His Beatitude Patriarch Daniel.

The twenty-fourth edition of "George Enescu" International Festival is the most complex so far and is defined by diversity and balance, as regards the structure of the programme, the format and "dosage" of the performances and repertoire, as well as with respect to the festival experiences.

At the same time, the edition proposes glamour, due to the large number of exceptional artists who will give concerts in Bucharest, in the country and the world.

Between 31 August and 22 September, under the aegis of the Festival, over 2,500 foreign musicians of the highest international level and over 1,000 Romanian artists from the most prestigious music institutions in Romania, along with soloists with solid international careers, will give concerts and recitals in an exceptional music marathon.

Official broadcaster Trinitas TV ensures the live and online broadcasting and distribution of the concerts, in compliance with the rights granted by the artists.

Read the Festival's full program here!

- Photography courtesy of Agerpres / Source: basilica.ro