Bishop Milutin consecrated a monastic residence in Celije monastery

His Grace Bishop Milutin of Valjevo consecrated a newly-built monastic residence in the Celije monastery belonging to a new church dedicated to Saint Sava, Saint Justin The Martyr and Saint Mary the Egyptian with the concelebration of the diocesan clergy and monks, as well as with prayerful presence of abbess of Celije Mother Glikeriya and her sisterhood on 6 September 2019.

The consecration of the beautiful building aimed to accommodate pilgrims of this famous holy place on the left bank of the Gradac River is an introduction to a great event hosted by monastery of Celije – consecration of the church of Venerable Father Justin of Celije.
