

10/09/2019

Patriarch of Alexandria & All Africa to begin tour of central Africa

The Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, is expected to begin a lengthy tour of Orthodox parishes in sub-Saharan Africa immediately after the re-dedication of the Sts. Constantine and Helen Cathedral in Cairo.

The Primate of the Orthodox Church in Africa is expected to visit Zambia and Burundi, as well as other parishes and missions in central Africa.