Orthodox Church of Albania announces six-month memorial service for late Archbishop Anastasios

The Orthodox Church of Albania has issued an announcement regarding the six-month memorial service for the late Archbishop Anastasios of Albania.

The statement reads:

“On Friday, 25 July 2025, the Feast of the Dormition of Saint Anna, six months will have passed since the repose in the Lord of our beloved Father, Archbishop Anastasios.

On this occasion, the Divine Liturgy will be celebrated at the Cathedral of the Resurrection of Christ in Tirana, followed immediately by the Memorial Service.

Afterwards, a Trisagion (Memorial service) will be held at his tomb, and coffee will be offered in the hall beneath the church for those present.

We warmly welcome everyone to attend this holy service to honour his unforgettable memory and to pray together.”
