

Giannis Antetokounmpo: “Blessings show up in many different forms.. Don’t ever second guess Gods plan.”

Giannis Antetokounmpo made his first public reaction following the elimination of Greece in the Basketball World Cup second round stage.

The NBA Superstar uploaded a photo of him with the jersey of his national team and the caption: “Blessings show up in many different forms.. Don’t ever second guess Gods plan.”

Antetokounmpo didn’t speak to media after the last game of Greece in the World Cup, a win over the Czech Republic. Greece needed victory with a 12+ margin in order to advance but won by seven.
