

16/09/2019

His Holiness Kirill, the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, extended his condolences to the families of eight victims who died during a truck-bus collision

In Russia, His Holiness Kirill, the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, extended his condolences to the families of eight victims who died during a truck-bus collision in the Yaroslavl region on Saturday, September 14, 2019.

A spokesman for the Russian Patriarch noted that the Metropolis of Yaroslavl, northwest of Moscow, is providing every possible assistance to the families of the victims and to the injured.