

Election of Hierarchs and Elevation of Bishops by the Holy Synod of the Patriarchate of Alexandria

On Tuesday, 7 October 2025, the Holy Synod of the Patriarchate of Alexandria and All Africa convened, under the presidency of His Beatitude Pope and Patriarch Theodoros II, at the seat of the ancient Patriarchate in Alexandria.

As stated in the communiqué regarding the first day of the Holy Synod's proceedings: "Invoking the Holy Spirit, the Patriarch declared the opening of the Synod, addressing a paternal greeting to the Synodal Hierarchs and emphasising the significance of the institution of synodality and the 1,700th anniversary of the First Ecumenical Council held in Nicaea, as well as the participation of the Great Theologian of the Church of Alexandria, Saint Athanasius the Great, in that Council."

His Eminence Elder Metropolitan Makarios of Nairobi responded to the Patriarch on behalf of the Hierarchs.

Subsequently, the Patriarch read the report of his activities over the past period since the previous convening of the Holy Synod, referencing all areas of the Patriarchate's ecclesiastical, pastoral, and philanthropic ministry.

Following this, His Eminence Elder Metropolitan Makarios of Nairobi was honored by the Patriarch with the distinction of the Great Cross of Saint Sabbas the Sanctified and was ceremonially granted the title "Archbishop of Kenya and Exarch of All Eastern Africa."

Additionally, His Eminence Metropolitan Meletios of Carthage and His Grace Bishop Neophytos of Eldoret and Northern Kenya were awarded the Golden Cross of Saint Sabbas the Sanctified in recognition of their ten years of episcopal ministry.

The newly elevated Metropolitans will bear the following titles:
