

Visit of His Beatitude the Archbishop of Sinai, Faran and Raitho to the Patriarchal Office

On Monday, 7th/20th October 2025, His Eminence Symeon the Archbishop of Sinai, Faran and Raitho, visited His Beatitude our Father and Patriarch of Jerusalem, Theophilos III, at the Patriarchal Office.

During this cordial meeting, His Eminence informed His Beatitude that on the previous night, he had the supreme blessing of celebrating the Divine Liturgy at the Most Holy and Life-Giving Tomb of our Lord, offering prayers of thanksgiving for His Beatitude, the Holy Sepulchre Brotherhood, and all the faithful.

He expressed to His Beatitude his profound feelings of love, respect, and filial devotion towards the venerable Patriarchate of Jerusalem, reaffirming the unbreakable spiritual communion and canonical unity of the two holy institutions.

In response, His Beatitude congratulated His Eminence on his assumption of the Archiepiscopal ministry, lavishly offering prayers for a long shepherding in wisdom and peace.

In conclusion, His Beatitude presented to the Most Reverend Archbishop the sigillate Patriarchal and Synodical Letter, through which the sacred Agreement, signed by him and the Fathers of the Sacred Monastery of the God-trodden Mount Sinai, is ratified, as a testimony of ecclesiastical harmony and fraternal cooperation
