

23/09/2019

Albanian Orthodox Church supports the earthquake victims

An earthquake measuring 5.9 on the Richter Scale struck Albania. Many houses were damaged in Tirana and the port town of Durrës. The country's Orthodox Church supports the earthquake victims.

The Albanian Orthodox Church provides food and clothing to the earthquake victims and it will also host some of the residents who were left homeless.

spc.rs