

Moscow Patriarchate delegation at OSCE meeting in Warsaw

A delegation from the Moscow Patriarchate's external Church relations department attended last week's Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe meeting, which was held in Warsaw, Poland.

Delegates at the meeting, among others, discussed the need for governments in Europe to take measures to ensure religious freedoms, to prevent hate crimes, as well as to fight racism and intolerance.