

Romania Patriarchs addresses pupils, teachers on occasion of new academic year

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, this week addressed a message to pupils, parents and teachers on the occasion of the beginning of the new academic year, emphasizing that a comprehensive education promotes scientific knowledge and a culture of spiritual values.

The Patriarch also blessed university students and lecturers, calling on them to exploit their knowledge towards the benefit of not only scientific research, but spiritual development as well.