

24/09/2019

Metropolitan Methodios Visits the Annunciation Cathedral Greek Festival

On Saturday, September 21, 2019, His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios visited the Annunciation Cathedral Greek Festival in Brookline, MA. The Cathedral's Festival was held on September 20, 21, and 22 and once again hosted thousands on the Cathedral Center grounds. His Eminence visited with parishioners working at the Festival and those attending. He stopped by the kitchen, food line, and other areas of the event to offer his thanks and appreciation to all those individuals who spent countless hours preparing and hosting this year's Greek Festival. With three days of excellent Fall weather, this year's Festival was once again a great success.

boston.goarch.org