The Ecumenical Patriarch visits the historic German Ambassador’s residence in Therapeia

On Sunday, 16 November 2025, His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew attended a memorial service held in the chapel and at the military cemetery on the grounds of the German Embassy retreat in Therapeia.

The Ecumenical Patriarch responded to an invitation from the Consul General of Germany in Constantinople to attend the service, which was held in honour of all those who lost their lives in armed conflicts.
