Re-dedication of historic Sts. Constantine & Helen Orthodox Cathedral in Cairo on Sat.

Only a couple days remain before the re-dedication of the renovated Sts. Constantine and Helen Orthodox Cathedral in Cairo.
Thousands of worshippers, including pilgrims from Greece, are expected to attend the re-dedication ceremony of the historic cathedral on Saturday, officiated by the Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Divine Beatitude Theodoros II.

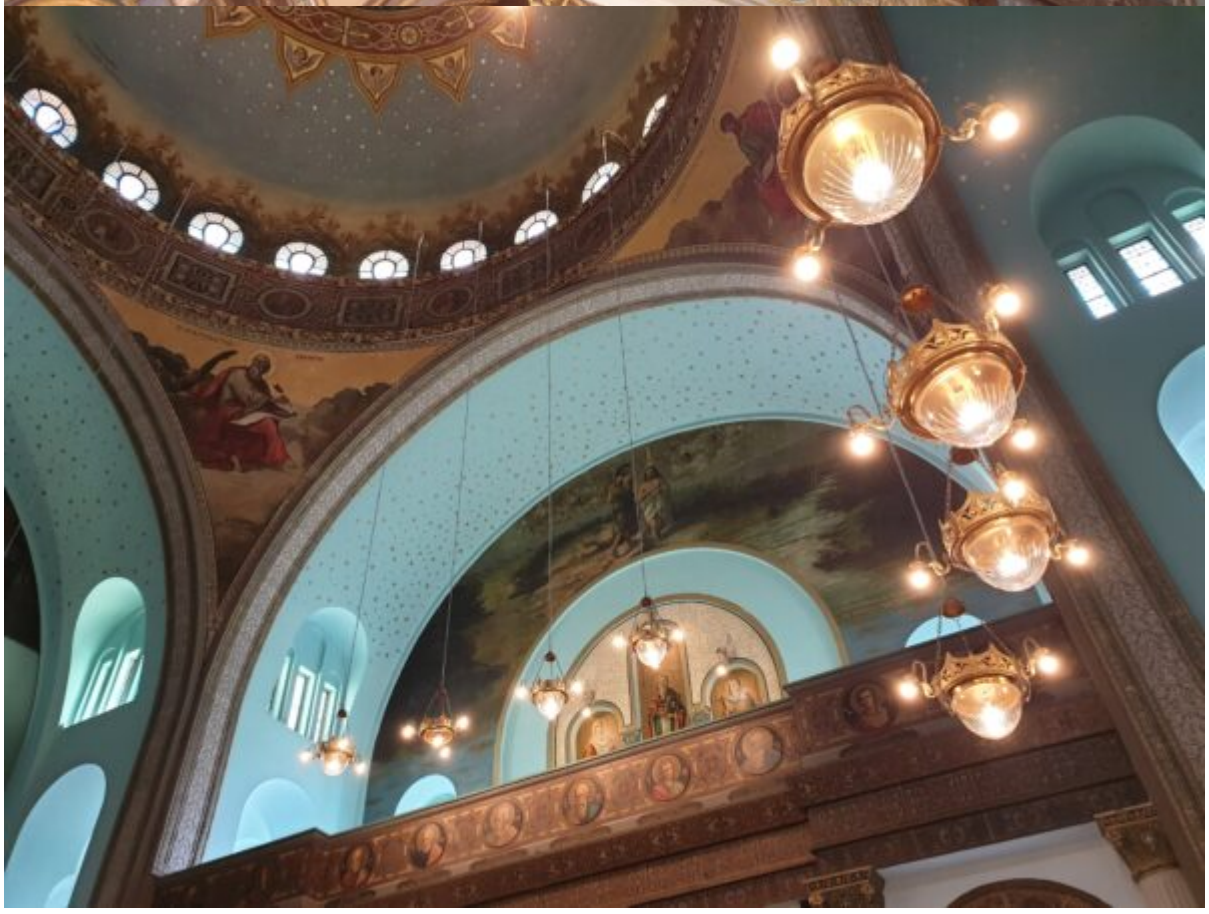

A concert by Greek composer Evanthia Rebutsika will be held the previous evening, following a celebratory Divine Liturgy.
