

Massive rally for unborn children in Bratislava

Orthodox Church in Slovakia and other organizations this week promoted a rally that witnessed up to 50,000 people taking to the streets of Bratislava to defend the rights of unborn children.

Participants at the “March for Life” rally in Slovakian capital called for a legal ban on abortion, as well as for legal and social protection of every human life.