

01/10/2019

First Sunday school in Moscow for children with hearing impairment

The first Sunday school for children with hearing impairment was opened recently in Moscow, coinciding with the International Day of Sign Languages.

The Sunday school was established with the blessing of the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, His Holiness Kirill, and following an initiative by the head of the Moscow Patriarchate's Synodal Department of Church charity, His Grace Panteleimon.

